

ACES Paragraph Structure

A nswer	Answer the given question. Assert the point that you will prove in your paragraph. TIP: Flip the question into an answer. Use key words from the question.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The author uses _____ in order to _____. ● The author implies _____. ● _____ occurs because _____.
C ite Evidence	Provide an example/evidence to support your answer. TIP: Make sure your evidence really proves the Answer. ALWAYS introduce quotes!	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The text states, “_____” ● _____ writes/states/asserts that “_____”. ● As _____ writes, “_____.” ● When describing _____, _____ calls it “_____.”
E xplain	Explain HOW your example proves or supports your answer. TIP: Make a clear connection to your answer by using key words from your answer or the question.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● This reveals/emphasizes/implies _____. ● The phrase “_____” implies _____. ● The description of _____ as _____ makes the reader think _____.
S ummarize	Sum up the main point of this paragraph and how the evidence supports the answer. TIP: Repeat key words from your answer/the question.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Overall, the author/speaker’s use of _____ works to _____. ● _____ matters because _____. ● Understanding _____ is important because _____.

Repeat the C-E step as many times as you need! At a MINIMUM you should have an A-C-E-C-E-S paragraph!

ACES Paragraph Structure

A nswer	Answer the given question. Assert the point that you will prove in your paragraph. TIP: Flip the question into an answer. Use key words from the question.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The author uses _____ in order to _____. ● The author implies _____. ● _____ occurs because _____.
C ite Evidence	Provide an example/evidence to support your answer. TIP: Make sure your evidence really proves the Answer. ALWAYS introduce quotes!	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The text states, “_____” ● _____ writes/states/asserts that “_____”. ● As _____ writes, “_____.” ● When describing _____, _____ calls it “_____.”
E xplain	Explain HOW your example proves or supports your answer. TIP: Make a clear connection to your answer by using key words from your answer or the question.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● This reveals/emphasizes/implies _____. ● The phrase “_____” implies _____. ● The description of _____ as _____ makes the reader think _____.
S ummarize	Sum up the main point of this paragraph and how the evidence supports the answer. TIP: Repeat key words from your answer/the question.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Overall, the author/speaker’s use of _____ works to _____. ● _____ matters because _____. ● Understanding _____ is important because _____.

Repeat the C-E step as many times as you need! At a MINIMUM you should have an A-C-E-C-E-S paragraph!